

As a long time broadcast professional I have seen many changes in the radio industry, not all of them good. Consolidation is one of the worst; it squelches independent thought and creativity, and makes radio a standardized format for big business. I am totally against any more regulatory changes.